Study abroad advisors must become advocates for their deaf and hard of hearing students.

- Embrace a culture of “yes”
- Seek programs that will work for their deaf and hard of hearing students
- Push program providers that they partner with to provide and pay for accommodations for students with disabilities.
- Setup funds at their universities for accommodations
- Build-in accommodations budgets into faculty-led programs
- Make it clear that they will only partner with program providers who are willing to make all programs accessible

The aim of WASLI is to advance the profession of sign language interpreting world wide.

The Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc. (RID), a national membership organization, plays a leading role in advocating for excellence in the delivery of interpretation and transliteration services between people who use sign language and people who use spoken language. In collaboration with the Deaf community, RID supports our members and encourages the growth of the profession through the establishment of a national standard for qualified sign language interpreters and transliterators, ongoing professional development and adherence to a code of professional conduct.
