AGENDA

What is this session about?

Whose first job was this?

What does this image signify?

What are the benefits vs drawbacks?

How do I decide?

What's Foucault got to do with it?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

- Explore diverse pathways and strategies for pursuing a rewarding career in international education.
- Consider how theories, methods, and experiences apply to contemporary work in international education.
- Acquire tips to make informed decisions that best support their career goals.

WHOSE FIRST JOB WAS THIS?

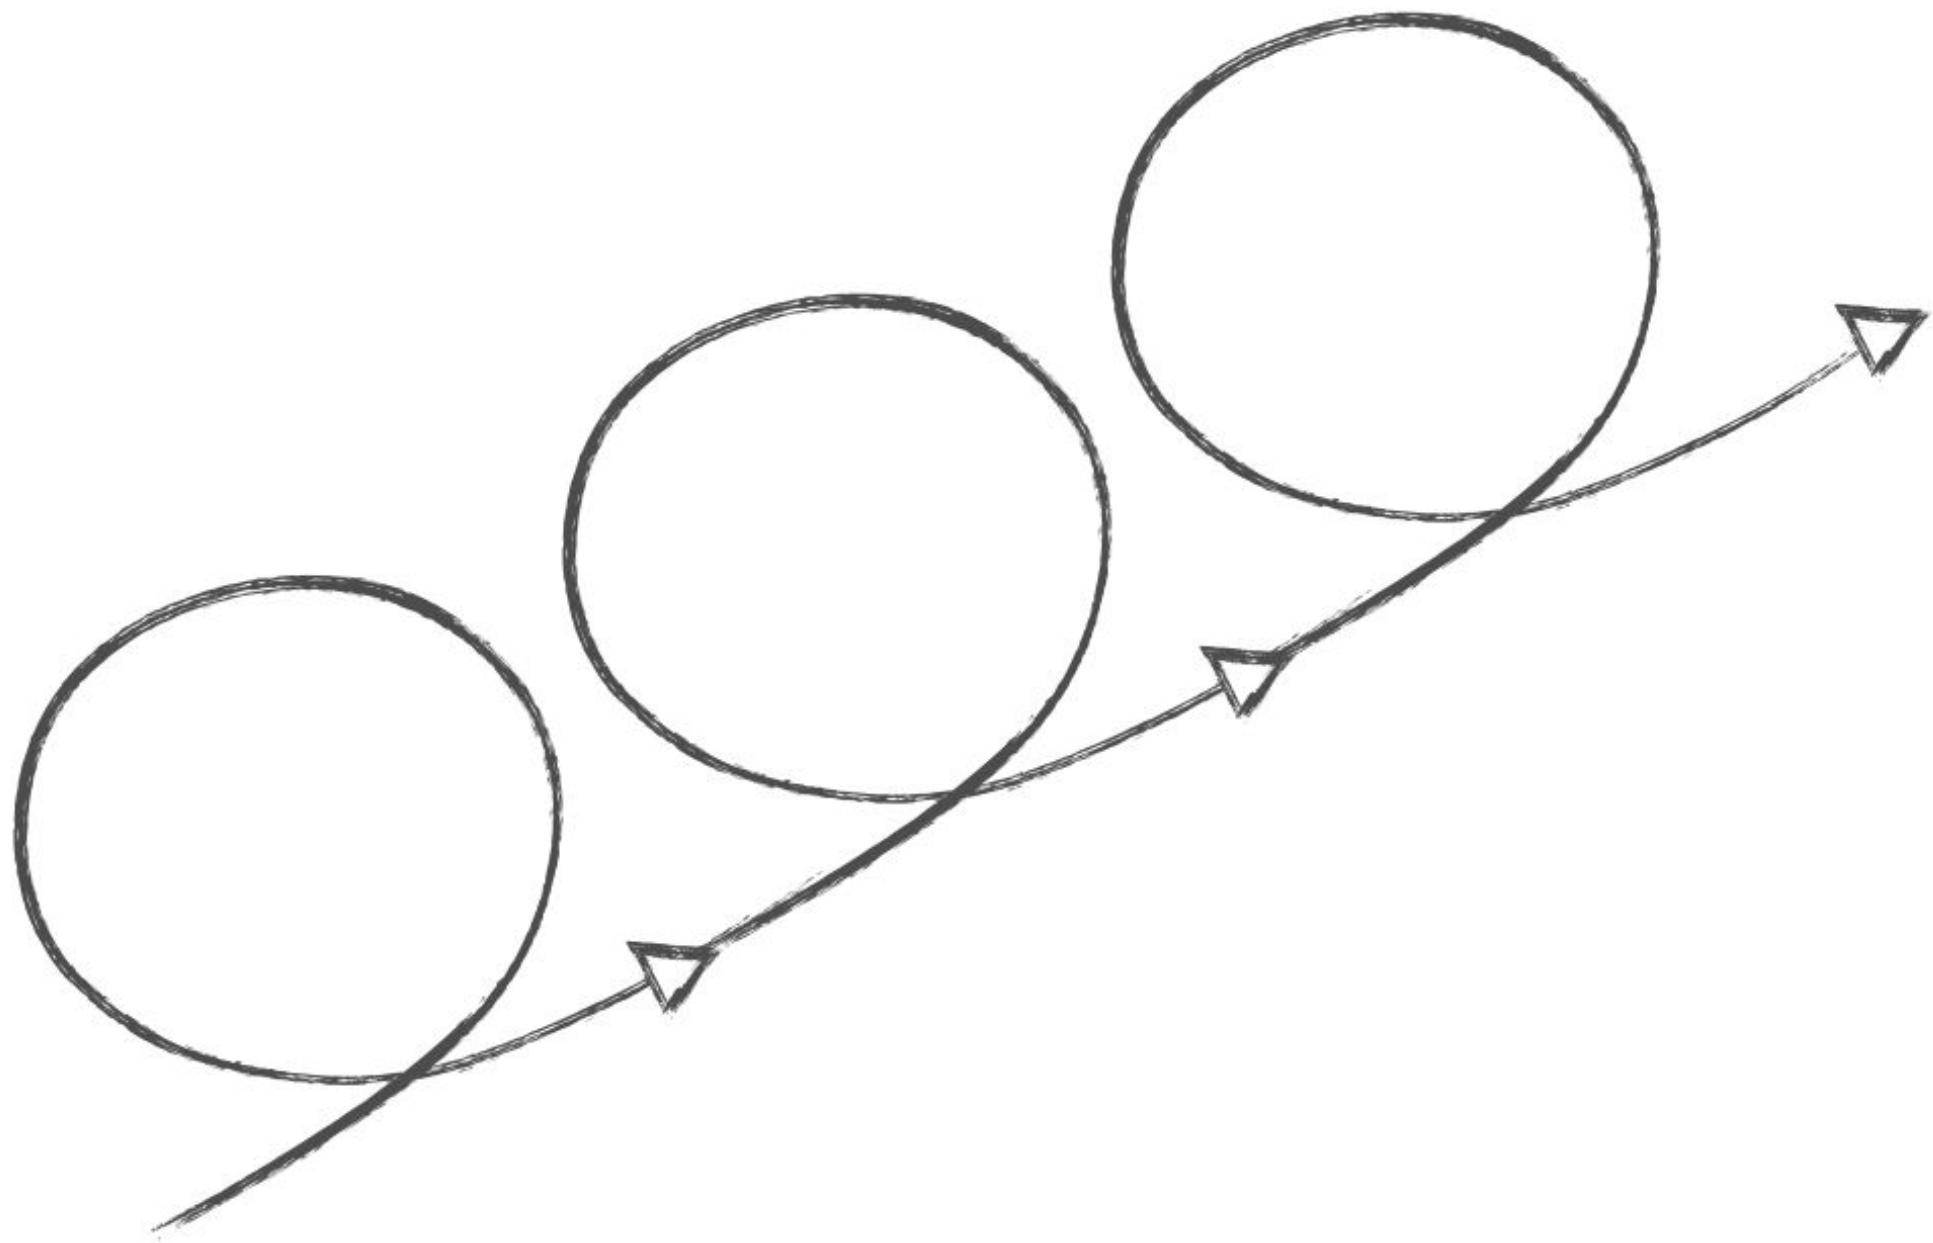

CAREERS KAHOOT

WHAT DOES THIS IMAGE SIGNIFY?

THINK-PAIR-SHARE

- Each presenter will share a visual that represents their own career pathway.
- With a person sitting near you, discuss what you think the image might signify.
- We will ask for volunteers to share your ideas before each panelist reveals what the image means to them.
- There are no wrong answers... all guesses are equally plausible! Creative responses are welcomed.

OUR STORIES

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS VS
DRAWBACKS?

HOW DO I DECIDE?

GRAD STUDIES IN INTERNATIONAL ED

- With a small group, please discuss the following questions:
 - What theories, methods, or experiences from your undergraduate or graduate studies apply to your current work?
 - How do I decide whether to pursue a graduate degree?
 - How do I decide which degree, program, or school is a good fit for me?

SO, WHAT'S FOUCAULT GOT TO DO WITH IT?
